Melfort physician accepting new patients

Dr. Jarryd Bryshun of Melfort is accepting new patients.

Dr. Bryshun began providing physician services in Melfort out of the Nirvana clinic in August, taking over Dr. Richard Van der Ross' practice. After taking an opportunity to assess his patient load, he has determined he is now in a position to accept additional patients into his practice, including new obstetrical patients.

Patients currently looking for a family physician are also encouraged to contact Dr. Bryshun's office at 306-752-3335.

Dr. Bryshun is originally from Birch Hills. He obtained his Medical Degree at the University of Saskatchewan before completing his Family Medicine post-graduate training in Prince Albert.
